ABOUT AKAL GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

Akal Group of Institutions, Mastuana Sahib, Sangrur, Punjab is working to propagate the ideals of the religious and social reformer, a great visionary Sant Attar Singh. He was a pioneer of education in Punjab whose mission was to provide education free from social and religious barriers. His advocacy of education for the girl-child, and blending education with spirituality show his sense of foresightedness. Even a century back, he knew that mere scientific education would only lead to destruction, and education of the girl-child would result in the whole family getting educated.

Towards that end, he first set up a school for girls in 1906. He did that even before establishing a school for boys and Akal Degree College at Mastuana, Punjab. Eventually he established a chain of schools and colleges. He also took part in several educational conferences motivating others to establish many more schools and colleges.

Such was his goodwill and popularity as a messenger of Universal Brotherhood and Oneness that he was personally invited by Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya to lay the foundation stone of the Banaras Hindu University on 24 December 1914.

Akal Group of Institutions, Mastuana Sahib (Sangrur) Punjab is a multi-disciplinary institution. Making a humble beginning in 1920 Akal Group of Institutions has travelled many miles to establish as a centre of excellence for quality education in the Malwa region of Punjab. Akal Group of Institutions provides a dynamic learning environment to students. The enviable growth of the institution has been made possible by the contribution of the faculty in the fostering and academically exhilarating, creative and harmonizing environment. While, many private universities and institutes have entered the field of education with their sole motive of making profit; Akal Group of Institutions is fully dedicated to enlighten the surrounding areas with education. Now-a-days Akal Degree College, Akal College of Education, Akal College of Physical Education, Akal College of Pharmacy and Technical Education, Gurmat College, Akal Senior Secondary School, Bahadarpur and Sant Attar Singh Akal Academy are part of Akal Group of Institutions.

It is spread across an area of 200 acres. It provides an ideal ambience for pursuing professional courses. The campus is well equipped with modern infrastructure, playgrounds, indoor gymnasium.
